Two policemen of Marikina City, namely Patrolman Arnold Geroy and Patrolman Sonny Maruzzo were charged for rape for allegedly raping the two female detainees for drug charges in Marikina Police Station where the latter at the time of the incident were detained.

The alleged rape incident was reported by the two female detainees to a fellow police officer who was then the one in charge of guarding a custodial facility where the two female detainees were transferred for inquest proceedings. After learning of the rape incident, the said police officer reported the same to the Chief of Police and eventually arrested the two offenders. The arrest of the two policemen were covered by major news outlets, and the Commission, through the Investigation Office investigated and monitored the case.
