

GBV CASE IN NATIONAL CAPITAL REGION (NCR)

A 45-year-old registered midwife was allegedly harassed and threatened via text and FB Messenger by her ex-boyfriend. The victim believes that the only person who can do the said cyber harassment and threat against her is her ex-boyfriend. She further alleged that her ex-boyfriend sent offensive messages about sex in 2019. According to her, psychological examination has a long process, the reason why her suppose complaint for Violence Against Women is being delayed. She feared for her, her sister and 75-year-old mother's safety as there are lots of random Facebook accounts that are sending her threats and nasty messages.

The victim claimed that her ex-boyfriend is destroying her dignity as he had spread anews in the neighborhood of the victim that he exploited her through sexual intercourse and that he already abhorred her.

The Commission on Human Rights is providing legal counselling for the victim-survivor.
